

COMPUTER BUDGET INCREASE REQUEST FORM

A medical student may request a one-time budget increase for the purchase of a computer or laptop during their enrollment at the Pritzker School of Medicine. A budget increase may be granted to currently enrolled students for a computer or laptop purchased during the current academic year. A budget increase may be granted to incoming medical students for the purchase of a computer or laptop either in the summer prior to matriculation or during the current academic year. Computers purchased prior to being admitted as a medical students are not eligible.

- You must submit a legible, original receipt of the purchase.
- You must have submitted all financial aid application materials for the current academic year.

The budget increase, if approved, will be either the cost of the computer or $2,000, whichever is less.

- Covered costs include a desktop or laptop and case, a monitor, and printer.
- NOT covered costs include extended warranties and service plans.

Funds offered to cover the budget increase will be in the form of an Unsubsidized Direct Loan if eligible, or a Grad PLUS Direct Loan. Please remember that you are eligible to receive only one computer budget increase during your program at Pritzker.
