Your Questions and Concerns

Things you are excited about...

- “Excited for the interview process, learning more about a wide range of programs, and starting to shape the next phase of our careers” + “Fourth year rotations”
- “Having time off!”

Things you may be worried about...

- “I am a bit uneasy about signaling since it is such a new part of the process. Geographic signaling seems like that part that has the least clarity.”
- “Poor sense of my standing & competitiveness for residency application + matching to same location as my significant other”

What you would like to know more about...

- “How the signaling process works” + “Using ERAS signaling”
- “How to learn about specific residency programs.” & “What are the benefits of ‘networking?’”

Changes to the 2023-2024 ERAS Application

The AAMC has implemented a few important changes to the 2023-2024 ERAS season, including elimination of a separate Supplemental ERAS Application, new limitations on the number of activities that may be listed, and new activity categories. Refer to the 2023-2024 Residency Process Book for further guidance on these changes.

Integration of Supplemental Application into MyERAS

Application components previously included in the separate Supplemental ERAS Application will be integrated into the primary MyERAS application. This includes geographic preference signals, program signals, and additional space to describe activities.

Geographic Preference Signals - Applicants will be able to indicate up to three preferred geographic divisions or indicate no preference. Applicants can also

Choosing a Program

Considerations:

- Family
- Geography
- Your own qualifications and abilities
- Quality of the program
- Preliminary program requirements
- Breadth and depth of list

Your Specialty and Career Advisors can be instrumental in helping you create a list.

Do I need to apply for a prelim year?

Categorical

- Begins in PGY-1 and offers full residency training required for board certification in that specialty

Advanced

- Begins in PGY-2 and are in specialty programs that require completion of 1 year of preliminary training

Preliminary

- Begins in PGY-1 and offers 1 year of training prior to entry into advanced specialty

Transitional

- PGY-1 year that is similar to a “rotating” internship

Specialties that may require a preliminary year

- Anesthesiology
- Dermatology
- Neurology
- Ophthalmology
- PMR
- Radiation-Oncology
- Radiology

Selecting Programs and Maximizing Your Odds

Think like an investor:

Create a diverse application portfolio to mitigate risk and maximize your ROI!

Goal Programs

- Your dream program!

Realistic Programs

- You are relatively sure you will get an interview at this program.

Low-Risk Programs or Specialties

- Maximize your odds of matching by applying to back-up programs.

Components of the Application

Application Components

Your responsibilities

1. ERAS application
2. Personal Statement
3. Letters of Recommendation (LORs)
4. ERAS Photo
5. USMLE transmission (via ERAS)

Guidelines for Your Personal Statement

Purpose

- Introduce yourself and your voice
- Express interest in a specialty

Length

- One page
- 10-point font
- 1-inch margins
- Single-spaced

Things to Avoid

- Humor
- Obscure references
- Quotations
- Personal things you would not want to discuss in an interview

Review

- Review your Personal Statement with your Career and Specialty Advisors

Next PS Workshop:
Thursday, June 8, 5 p.m. (Zoom)

Letters of Recommendation: How many letters do I need?

Categorical Programs: 3-4 total letters

- 3 clinical letters
- 1 research letter (if appropriate)

Note: You cannot submit more than 4 letters to a single program.

Advanced Programs: 6-7 total letters

- Prelim/Transitional Year: 3 clinical letters
 - Advanced Program: 3 clinical letters
- 1 research letter (if appropriate)

Note: Letter writers can use the same letter for both applications, as long as they are generic in specialty.

(ie. “I recommend John Doe for your residency program” instead of “I recommend John Doe for your Pediatric residency program”)

Letters of Recommendation: Do I need a Chair's Letter?

- Anesthesiology
- Medicine*
- Medicine-Pediatrics*
- Preliminary Medicine*
- Obstetrics and Gynecology
- Orthopedic Surgery
- Otolaryngology (Section Chief)
- Pediatrics (some programs)
- Plastic Surgery (Section Chief)
- Surgery
- Urology (Section Chief)

Another faculty member writes the letter in conjunction with the Chair.*

Emergency Medicine and Ob/Gyn utilize a “Standardized Letter of Evaluation”, and Plastic Surgery is starting to do the same. Check with your program.

If you are applying in both Preliminary Medicine and transitional programs, you could use the letters for both if they are generic in specialty.

Letters of Recommendation: Timeline

- Give letter-writers at least 4-6 weeks' notice
- Letters in by September 15 (i.e., ask before July 31!)
- Track which letters have arrived by using ERAS
 - Gently remind letter writers on Sept. 1 if a letter is not in
- Do not wait for your letters to submit your ERAS application
- Send a friendly reminder email if it has been 6 weeks and your letter has not been uploaded

ERAS Letter of Recommendation (LoR) Request

ERAS Application Season: 2023
ERAS Letter ID: 11H72S47ED

I am requesting that you submit my Letter of Recommendation (LoR) to the Electronic Residency Application Service (ERAS), which transmits my LoR(s) to the residency programs to which I am applying.

ERAS Letter of Recommendation Portal (LoRP)

The Electronic Residency Application Service (ERAS) Letter of Recommendation Portal (LoRP) is a centralized service that allows LoR Authors to upload LoRs for applicants applying to ERAS residency programs.

ERAS has established a set of guidelines that should be reviewed prior to writing and uploading LoRs using the LoRP.

For more information about the LoRP guidelines, additional resources, and to access the LoRP login, please visit https://www.aamc.org/services/eras/282520/lor_portal.html.

- Review the information below. If any information is inaccurate, contact the applicant directly so they can make corrections.
- Login to the ERAS LoRP to upload this letter using the unique ERAS Letter ID above.

Words of Wisdom

Be a Smart Applicant!

- Apply broadly to give yourself the best possible odds
 - You can always narrow your list during interview season
- Listen to Career Advisor feedback about your strategy
- Realize that there is more than one program where you can be happy

Don't put all of your eggs in one basket...

Diversify your application portfolio to maximize your odds!

The Gut Check/Strike Zone

The Strike Zone

The strike zone is an area over home plate. Its upper limit is a horizontal line at the midpoint between the top of the shoulder and the top of the uniform pants. Its lower level is a line at the hollow beneath the knee cap. The strike zone is determined from the batter's stance as he prepares to swing at a pitch.

- Careers are long—find something you love to do
- Listen to yourself, not to others telling you what you should do
- Don't be confused by a great—or lousy—experience on a rotation

Make a Plan and Focus

- Focus on what you can do something about: your Personal Statement, letters, and interview preparation
- Get the pieces together and assemble them
- Refer to your Residency Process Booklet
- Know what job you are applying for
 - Program Directors want smart, dependable, functional team players who will take excellent care of their patients
- Take it one step at a time

You will get through it!

You are NOT alone!

- You have a good support team
- You are not behind
- This is a long process with multiple parts

The Career Advising team's doors are always open!
